

Object pronouns

When a pronoun is the subject of a sentence, we use subject pronouns (I, you, he, she, it, we, you, they).

I like him.

When a pronoun is the object of a verb, we use direct object pronouns (me, you, him, her, it, us, you, them).

I like him. Play with us.

We also use a direct object pronoun instead of a noun.

She bought the bananas. She used them to make a smoothie.

(them = the bananas)

With verbs that have two parts, like switch on and chop up, we put the pronoun after the verb.

Switch it on. Chop them up.
