

Relative pronouns who and which

We use relative pronouns to connect two facts.

This is the boy. He made the smoothie.

This is the boy who made the smoothie.

We use who when we are talking about people. In the sentence above, who replaces he.

We use which when we are talking about animals or things. In the sentence below, which replaces it.

This is the drink. It is very popular here.

This is the drink which is very popular here.

4 Circle the correct answer.

- 1 the milk which / who you poured
- 2 the girl which / who we like
- 3 the boy which / who is deaf
- 4 the pan which / who she used
- 5 the danger which / who the girls didn't know about
- 6 the person which / who logged on before me
- 7 the photos which / who I attached
- 8 the crisps which / who Harry bought
- 9 the horses which / who ran into the field
- 10 the money which / who we haven't got

5 Write sentences. Use relative pronouns.

There's the dog which is dangerous.

That's the photo which Dad took.

That's the smoothie which Carrie made.

Those are the astronauts which are going to the moon.

Where's the food which I asked you to buy?

She's the girl which saw a hurricane.

Here's the statue which broke.

Here's the information which we need.

Look. There's the boy which won all the trophies.

Camels are animals which don't drink much water.