

Describing a friend's personality

1 Write the words for the definitions.

- This describes someone who only thinks about himself or herself. selfish
- This describes someone who is not afraid of new things or challenges. confort
- This describes someone who is not polite. rugos
- This describes someone who is intelligent. couton
- This describes someone who is always happy. coopul

2 Match the adjectives below with pictures A–F.

bossy chatty funny kind lazy polite

A

kind

B

C

D

E

F

3 Choose the correct option.

- My brother is so shy / funny that he has very few friends.
- Jo is very quiet / friendly and always makes new friends.
- Carla is rather quiet / chatty. She never says much.
- Paolo's room is never a mess – he's very tidy / lazy.
- Mary talks too much! She's never helpful / quiet.

I can understand people talking about their friends.

4 Complete the sentences with adjectives from Exercise 3.

- Sara doesn't talk very much. She's very quiet.
- Gary's very _____. He's checking my computer at the moment because it isn't working very well.
- My young sister is quite _____ and she doesn't like meeting new people.
- I think I'm _____. I can talk about anything!
- My brother's so _____. He always does things that make me laugh.
- I'm feeling _____ today. I don't want to do anything.

5 2.1 Listen to dialogues 1–5 and choose the correct answer.

- Who is the boy's sister?
a Anna
b Sally c Alex
- Where are the speakers?
a in town
b in a café
c in the park
- When is the girl's party?
a Wednesday
b Friday
c Saturday
- What is Grace wearing to the concert?
a dress
b jeans
c trainers
- What is Tim doing?
a eating his breakfast
b dancing at a club
c sleeping in bed

6 2.1 Listen to the dialogues again.

Mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).

- The new student is in Class 4.
- It isn't raining at the moment.
- The boy is giving the girl her birthday present now.
- The students are planning to walk to the concert.
- Tim stays out late on Fridays.