I'm not having the best of times at the moment. This seems to be one of those periods when things are going wrong.

→ express sympathy

First of all, I've got so much to do at work that I don't know how I'm going to get it all done. I used to enjoy the job, but now I'm under terrible pressure and it's really getting me down.

→ do something about this!

On top of that, I've had a big argument with Helen, and she says she doesn't want to see me any more. It was a stupid argument, and I said things I didn't mean. We've been going out together for nearly a year, and I don't want to split up with her.

Sorry to be so miserable. Write to me soon.

George

→ cheer up!

→ suggest solution

Write your email. You must use grammatically correct sentences with accurate spelling and punctuation in a style appropriate for the situation.
