Types of Conjunctions

Indicate whether the highlighted conjunctions are of coordinating, subordinating or correlative.

1. _____ She wanted to join the team, but she was too busy with school.
2. _____ We stayed inside because it was raining all day.
3. _____ You can have either pizza or pasta for dinner.
4. _____ He wanted to go for a walk despite the cold weather.
5. _____ Since it's raining, we should stay indoors.
6. _____ They enjoy reading, and they like watching movies together.
7. _____ She will go to the concert whether she has a ticket or not.
8. _____ I'll meet you at the park, so we can discuss our project.
9. _____ After he finished his homework, he watched a movie.
10. _____ I couldn't decide whether to stay or go.
11. _____ She is not only an excellent singer but also a great dancer.
12. _____ You can borrow my bike as long as you return it by evening.
13. _____ Although it was expensive, she bought the dress.
14. _____ I haven't decided what to eat, nor have I chosen a drink.
15. _____ She was tired, yet she continued working.
16. _____ He studied hard so that he could pass the exam.
17. _____ I will call you before I leave.
18. _____ They will go to the concert if they get tickets.
19. _____ Both family and friends were invited to their wedding.
20. _____ She bought a new dress, for it was on sale.

LIVEWORKSHEETS