

Choose the theme of the passage.

It was finally spring break, and Sam was so excited to take a vacation! He could not wait to put his feet in the sand, watch the waves, and collect seashells.

As he passed, he saw her trip and drop her books. He almost kept walking, but decided to stop and help pick up her books.

Choose the theme of the passage.

It was dinner time, and it was her favorite food! The circular pie with cheese and pepperoni tasted so good.

After playing outside, they were so hot and thirsty. They could not wait to go inside and drink some cold, refreshing water.

