

American Football

American Football, which is very different from our football, is the most popular sport in the USA. Each game starts with a kick off and is made up of 4 quarters of 15 minutes. The rules are really complicated but let's try to understand something more!

Watch the video and cross out the correct answer! <https://youtu.be/Ddwp1HyEFRE>

- | | |
|--|--------------|
| 1) The field is 100 yards per 50 yards | True / False |
| 2) When one team is attacking, the other is defending | True / False |
| 3) The Offense is on the field only when the team has possession of the ball | True / False |
| 4) Each team has got a goalkeeper | True / False |
| 5) The Defense has got 12 players | True / False |
| 6) A touchdown is 6 points plus 1 point for the kick | True / False |

Complete with the missing words!

December	seven	thirty-two	final	Football
----------	-------	------------	-------	----------

The National _____ League (NFL) is the professional American football league consisting of _____ teams. The regular season starts in September and ends in _____ (17 weeks). After that, _____ teams from each conference advance to the play-offs which determine the two teams playing in the _____, the Super Bowl.

The Super Bowl is one of the most important sports event in the world. It is the final of the NFL season and takes place in a different city on the first Sunday of February. This year the Super Bowl reaches its 55th edition (LV in Roman numbers)

https://youtu.be/_h1m35tZi1U

