

A Fun Picnic

It is a sunny Saturday. Mia, Tom, and Lily are happy. They want to have a picnic in the park!

Mia likes apple pie and grapes. She brings an apple pie and some grapes. "I love apple pie!" she says. "I also like grapes!"

Tom likes cold cuts and chips. He packs cold cuts and a bag of chips. "Chips are my favorite!" he says. "I like cold cuts too!"

Lily does not like cucumbers. She thinks they are bad! "I do not like cucumbers," she says. But she loves watermelon and peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. "I love watermelon! I also like peanut butter and jelly sandwiches!"

At the park, they spread out their blanket. They enjoy the apple pie, cold cuts, and chips. Then, they eat watermelon and sandwiches. "I like this picnic!" says Mia.

After lunch, they roast marshmallows. "Marshmallows are the best!" Mia says. "I really like marshmallows!" They all laugh and have fun.

It is a great picnic! They like being together and eating good food.
