

THE TALE OF THE HAUNTED CABIN

MUSTY

They say deep in the forest of _____ (place), there's a _____ (adjective) cabin that no one dares to _____ (verb).

SECLUDED

It's been abandoned for years, ever since _____ (holiday) night of _____ (year), when something _____ (adjective) happened there.

SHUT

One stormy night, a group of _____ (adjective) _____ decided to spend the night in the cabin. As they walked _____ the woods, the wind howled like a _____ (animal), and the trees swayed like _____ dancing in the darkness.

STRANGE

When they arrived at the cabin, they noticed something _____ (adjective).

The door was _____ (adjective), but the windows were all _____. Inside, the air was _____ (adjective), and the _____ (noun) looked like it hadn't been touched in _____ (number) years.

On the mantelpiece sat an old _____ (noun), covered in dust.

CANDLESTICK

Once inside, they heard strange _____ coming from the walls.

ANKLES

It sounded like _____ scratching to get in.

BROOM

Suddenly, the lights flickered and a _____ (adjective) voice whispered,

" _____ (your name)... I'm _____ (gerund) for you."

After that, _____ (comparative) things began to happen.

Someone saw a _____ (noun) move on its own. Another person felt a cold _____ (body part) brush against their _____.

Everyone was filled with _____ as they tried to find a place to hide.

RASPY

Just when they thought they were _____ (adjective), all the windows slammed shut, and the sound of _____ echoed through the cabin.

They realized they were not alone. The cabin was haunted by the _____ (noun) of _____ (name of coworker), who had disappeared all those years ago.

They never made it out of the cabin. Legend has it, the spirit _____ their _____ (noun) and _____ (verb in past) their bodies.