

CONDITIONAL SENTENCES REVIEW

1 Match A to B to form sentences.

- | A  | B   |
|--|---|
| 1. Would you read Susan's letter         | ..... a. unless he starts studying.               |
| 2. The children would have been hungry   | ..... b. if I had the ingredients.                |
| 3. You must call me                      | ..... c. if she wrote to you?                     |
| 4. I'd bake a cake                       | ..... d. if you meet Mike.                        |
| 5. Peter will get into trouble at school | ..... e. if you hadn't given them so many sweets. |

2 Choose the sentence that is closer in meaning to the original sentence.

- If I had known that you were ill, I would have visited you.
a. I didn't visit you because I didn't know you were ill.
b. I didn't visit you because I knew you were ill.
- If you hadn't invited James to the party, Sara would have come.
a. Sara came to the party because James was there.
b. Sara didn't come to the party because James was there.
- They would buy a new car if they had the money.
a. They had some money and decided to buy a new car.
b. They won't buy a new car because they don't have enough money.
- Peter will miss the bus if he doesn't leave the house soon.
a. Peter won't catch the bus unless he leaves the house on time.
b. Peter didn't catch the bus because he didn't leave the house on time.
- You would have known about the fire if you had watched the news.
a. You knew about the fire because you watched the news.
b. You didn't know about the fire because you didn't watch the news.

3 Choose the correct answer.

- If Isabel paid attention in class, she will understand / would understand / would have understood the homework.
- You will enjoy talking to Taylor if you give / gave / would give him a chance.
- The boys wouldn't have gone to sleep so late if you had turned off / turn off / would turn off the television at 8.00.
- I would come with you if I didn't have / hadn't had / won't have an exam tomorrow.

4 Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- If your father were here now, he ..... (be) very angry.
- He would have helped you if you ..... (ask) him.
- The dog will bark all night unless you ..... (bring) it into the house.
- The teacher wouldn't have given the students a test if they ..... (not make) so much noise.
- ..... you ..... (go) to Paris if your parents paid for your trip?
- My mum will take my mobile phone away from me if I ..... (spend) too much time talking on it.

5 Choose the correct answer.

- I wish my parents would give / will give me more pocket money.
- Peter wishes he were / would be a film star.
- The students wish they hadn't disturbed / didn't disturb the teacher.
- Do you wish you could travel / can travel around the world?
- Thomas wishes he had never said / didn't say anything about the party.