

A lucky day

Use the simple past.

Yesterday I _____ when my alarm clock _____ .
(wake up) (ring)

My Mum _____ immediately. And she _____ me my breakfast in bed.
(get up) (bring)

I _____ cereal and _____ cocoa with milk.
(eat) (drink)

Then I _____ a shower and got dressed. I _____ a nice t-shirt and the (have) (choose)

trousers my grandma _____ me in New York during the holidays.
(buy)

My goldfish _____ towards me when he _____ me and I _____ him.
(swim) (see) (feed)

I _____ Dad calling me. He asked me if I _____ my lessons. I told (hear) (know)

him I _____ them by heart and he _____ me to school.
(learn) (drive)

He _____ me some pocket money to buy a croissant. I _____ it and (give) (take)

_____ thank you.
(say)

At school I _____ a love letter in my locker. My secret girlfriend _____ (find) (send) it to me. I _____ it in a hurry. She _____ I was the most handsome (read) (say)

boy in my class and it _____ me feel great!
(make)

I _____ her some earrings for her birthday. They _____ me a lot of money but they're beautiful.
(buy) (cost)

After that, I _____ a maths test which I _____ was a piece of cake
(have) (think)

(= very easy). I _____ everything.
(understand)

On the way home I _____ a rainbow.
(see)

After having dinner I _____ my homework and then _____ to bed.
(do) (go)

I _____ like a log in my car shaped bed. I _____ I (sleep) (dream)

_____ the Grand Prix.
(win)

I wish every day could be as perfect.