

Modal's practice

A. Match the modals or modal perfects with their uses.

1. Shall I help you with that difficult potion?
2. You should have done all the homework.
3. Hermione didn't answer my letter so she must have been studying.
4. I need to clean my broom. I promised my mum that I would.
5. I believe they might have apparated in the Forbidden Forest.
6. Would you sign your name here, please?
7. It's not fair. Our house ought to have received 10 points too.
8. You mustn't cast this spell.

B. Choose the correct answer.

1. Harry could fly/ could have flown on a broom before he was a year old.
2. Dumbledore's Army was supposed to be a secret. You shouldn't say / shouldn't have said anything.
3. I'm not sure, but Death Eaters might attack/ might have attacked early tonight.
4. I'm not afraid to go alone in the dungeons. You needn't have come / needn't come with me.
5. Your scar is hurting. Voldemort must gain/ must have gained power again.
6. You ought to follow/ ought to have followed directions carefully. This potion is rather dangerous.
