Local boy to climb Everest

Nathan Short is a sixth-form student at Pittville Community School, here in Cheltenham. But by August next year, Nathan ¹will have left / will be leaving school far behind him. He ²won't have hung / won't be hanging out with his friends in town next summer either – he ³will be camping / camps in a tent 5,000 metres up Mount Everest! By then, his body ⁴will have got / will get used to the freezing temperatures and high altitude, and his team ⁵waits / will be waiting for the right time to start climbing to the top of the mountain. If everything ⁶goes / will have gone well, Nathan and five friends ⁷are then / will then try to reach the top of Mount Everest.

'The weather changes all the time on Everest,' Nathan told us, 'so a lot depends on the weather. We ⁸may / will have to wait for weeks before we can climb to the top, or we ⁹could start / will have started climbing in July – we just don't know. But I'm ¹⁰doubt / fairly sure that by the end of August we ¹¹will have reached / will be reaching the top of the mountain – or failed.' One thing is certain: everyone in Cheltenham ¹²may follow / will be following his trip closely.

7 Read the text and complete gaps 1–10. Circle the correct answer A, B or C.

The photo shows a group of people ¹ bare feet in a park. It looks ² some kind of yoga class because they are all standing in the same position. The man ³ his foot on his hip is the teacher, I ⁴ say, because everyone is looking in his direction and trying to copy him. It's ⁵ likely a class for advanced students because they all look very confident. However, the woman ⁶ a ponytail is holding something to help her, so I'd ⁷ that she is a beginner. There is a man in the background who looks like he's got a ball ⁸ some kind. He's using it to help him balance, or ⁹ like that. The photo ¹⁰ to be an advert for a holiday camp because everyone looks like a model and they are all wearing designer sports clothes.
