

FLYER PLUS TEST 2 - LISTENING

PART 1:

Example:

Child: I took this photo on my skiing Do you want to have a look?

Male: Yes, please. Did you have a good time?

Child: Yes, it was great. Can you see that boy who's wearing the orange?

Male: The one who's skiing really fast down the?

Child: Yes. He's my brother. He's called George.

1. Male: Who's that girl skiing him?

Child: There are two girls. Which one do you?

Male: The one with the pink hat. She looks very happy.

Child: Oh, that's our cousin, Katy. She's smiling!

2. Male: Look at that man at the of the hill, sitting in the snow. I think he's just fallen over.

Child: That's Fred!

Male: Was he skiing?

Child: No, it was his first time

3. Child: Can you see my friend Betty? She's talking to her mum.

Male: No. Where is she?

Child: She's there, near the Male: Oh, is she the short girl?

Child: No, she's the tall one with short hair.

Male: And the one?

Child: Oh that's her sister. I don't know her very

4. Male: What about the boys throwing?

Child: The one with glasses is called Ben.

Male: He's a bit!

Child: Yes, he threw a snowball at the ski teacher!

Male: Really?

5. Male: Who's the other boy with blond hair on the?

Child: Oh, that's his Alex.

Male: It looks like a fun holiday!

Child: It was!

PART 2:

Example:

Child: Oh hello, Miss Gray. Can I ask you some?

Female: Yes, of course, Daisy. What do you want to know?

Child: What time are we going to the on Wednesday?

Female: Oh, didn't you know? It's on Thursday now.

Child: Oh, right.

Female: The football team the school bus that day.

Child: Oh, OK

Child: What time are we going to go to the theatre?

Female: Well, we need to be at the theatre for 2:45 and so we're going to school at 2:15. The theatre isn't far from the school.

Child: OK. What are we going to see?

Female: It's a

Child: Oh, is it called 'Guess the song'?

Female: Yes, that's right.

Child: I'd like to go. What do I need to do?

Female: You need to write your name on a today. It's in the school library. Just write your name and your class.

Child: OK. And who do I get the from?

Female: Mr Neale. You can give him the money on the day.

Child: Sorry, who?

Female: Mr Neale. That's N-E-A-L-E. He's the new music teacher.

Child: Oh, yes I've him. Is he taking us to the theatre?

Female: Yes, he is.

Child: Do I need to take anything to the theatre?

Female: Just some money to buy a drink. you cannot take your camera or your mobile phone with you.

Child: Right, OK. Are you going to come with us Miss Gray?

Female: Yes, I am.

Child: Great!

PART 3:

Example:

Female: Did you have a holiday Harry?

Child: Yes, grandma, it was great. Look, I got some things from the different places we We went to a castle one day, and dad bought me and Ben a kite each from the shop there. It was a very day, so we had a lot of fun flying them in the park next to it.

Child: Do you like this hat grandma?

Female: Oh yes, that's What does it say on the front of it?

Child: Blue Dolphin. It's the name of the boat we went on when we visited Parrot Island. But there weren't any shops on the, so I got it on the boat. It was a great day!

Female: And did you visit the zoo?

Child: We wanted to but it was closed so we couldn't go. I this T-shirt with the tigers on it from our hotel. They had a shop that sold lots of things – clothes, food, toys, even sports things.

Female: Well, you can visit the zoo next time. Where else did you go?

Child: We had a great day in the mountains when the weather was warm and sunny. We went really high. We didn't climb to the top but we to the café and had lunch there. Look, I bought this postcard there.

Female: That's a lovely picture. You can put that on your wall. Was the weather always good?

Child: Yes but there was one day where it rained all day so we went to the museum. It was very I got this pen there. Do you like it?

Female: It's lovely! Did you visit anywhere else?

Child: Well, we went to a restaurant by the river on the last day. We had a big pizza and lots of ice cream. I got chocolates from there. They make them at the restaurant. They're for you grandma!

PART 5:

Example:

Child: I like that picture of a!

Male: Do you? Can you colour it for me then?

Child: Oh yes! Can I colour the man who's a monkey?

Male: OK. Can you colour his jacket?

Child: Yes, what colour?

Male: Red.

1. Child: What shall I colour now?

Male: Let's see. Can you see the women on the?

Child: Yes, I can.

Well, look at the woman on the She's got long hair.

Child: Shall I colour her hair brown?

Male: OK.

2. Child: Shall I colour something?

Male: I'd like you to write something now.

Child: OK.

Male: Now, can you see the man who's ice cream?

Child: Yes, I can! He's giving a little girl an ice cream.

Male: Well, can you write the word 'drinks' next to the word '.....'? Do you see the space?

Child: Yes. There! I've it!

3. Male: Now, can you see the boy sitting next to the girl.

Child: Yes, she's wearing a gold

Male: That's right. Well, I'd like you to colour the in her hand.

Child: All right. I'll colour it pink.

Male: Great.

4. Child: Shall I colour something else?

Male: Yes. There's a woman who's standing the horse. Can you see her?

Child: Yes.

Male: Well, she's holding a Can you colour it?

Child: Yes. I'll do it green.

Male: That's good.

5. Male: Last thing now. There are two clowns in the of the picture.

Child: Yes, they're laughing at something.

Male: Can you see the smaller one who's wearing a funny?

Child: Yes, it's a very big

Male: I'd like you to colour it yellow.

Child: OK. Is that all?

Male: Yes. It's a lovely picture now.

