

AQUATIC HABITATS

Animals that make their home in water are called:

- a) Terrestrial animals
- b) Aquatic animals

What is an aquatic habitat?

- a) A home with rocks for living creatures
- b) A home with water for living creatures
- c) A home with soil for living creatures

The two types of Aquatic habitats are:

Land

Fresh water

Forests

Salt water

Fresh Water Habitats are:

Seas rivers ponds oceans swamps

Salt Water Habitats are:

Seas rivers ponds oceans swamps

Some animals and plants that live in seas or oceans are:

Fishes lobster dogs seaweed whale
cat shark corals frogs dolphin

Some animals and plants that live in ponds are:

Fishes lobster dogs seaweed whale
cat shark water lily frogs dolphin

Some animals that live in swamps are:

Fishes lobster tadpoles seaweed crabs birds shark alligators frogs dolphin

Some animals that live in mangroves are:

Fishes dogs snails seaweed crabs

birds shark alligators frogs oysters

Some animals that live in rivers are:

Fishes dogs snails seaweed crocodile

birds shark alligators frogs oysters