

1 Talk to two or three friends. Why are the sentences wrong?

- a Harry Black has a job at the Ritesville Art Gallery.
He doesn't have a job there. He's a thief.
- b He takes a new painting and a beautiful vase from the gallery.
- c Harry gives the painting to Mrs. Allen. She puts it in her kitchen.
- d Janey finds some old bottles in Harry's bedroom on Friday.
- e Harry watches the recycling men quietly.
- f Janey sees some green glass in Harry's shoes.
- g Harry talks to the police on the telephone.
- h The policemen are angry with Janey.

2 Work with a friend.

Student A: You are a policeman/woman. You are at the police station with Harry Black. Ask him questions.

Student B: You are Harry Black. Answer the questions. Give some right answers and some wrong answers.

Write about it

It is a week before Harry Black's visit to the Ritesville Art Gallery. Write about the gallery for visitors to Ritesville.

RITESVILLE: A Beautiful Town!

The Ritesville Art Gallery..... has many important things. What is new at the gallery? There is a small .....-dollar painting in a beautiful ..... . There is an expensive ..... vase, too. You ..... buy the things in the gallery. You can see the paintings and vases ..... ten o'clock in the ..... to six ..... in the ..... . The gallery closes ..... six. It is ..... from Tuesday to Saturday. But it is ..... on Sunday and Monday.
..... to Ritesville and visit our beautiful art gallery!

"Green" people like recycling. They think about problems with our trees, oceans, rivers, and food.

Work with two or three friends.

- 1 Talk about the questions. Is recycling important, do you think? Why (not)?
- 2 Look at the picture.

a Write the numbers on the things in the picture.

1	bike	6	shoes	11	newspaper
2	boat	7	chair	12	TV
3	car	8	bag	13	food
4	dress	9	box	14	glass bottle
5	shirt	10	book	15	water

b Can we recycle them? How can we recycle them? Talk about it.