Choose the correct verb or adjective to create common collocations related to AI.

1. Companies rely on AI to _____ insights that can drive decision-making.
2. In our department, we use _____ processing to handle large volumes of information as it arrives.
3. To predict customer trends, we _____ patterns within user data.
4. Our team will _____ algorithms that help automate customer service tasks.
5. _____ learning has become essential for advancements in image and speech recognition.
6. This new AI model needs additional data before we can _____ models for accurate results.
7. Using _____ analysis allows companies to anticipate potential challenges.
8. We have developed a _____ network that mimics human brain processes to improve accuracy.
9. Handling _____ data is essential for analyzing global trends.
10. AI is designed to _____ data and deliver efficient results.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Choose the correct collocation from the options to complete each sentence.

1. To improve our recommendation system, the team is working hard to _____ with updated data.
2. Our _____ indicated that we might see an increase in demand next quarter.
3. Financial institutions often use _____ to monitor transactions and detect fraud instantly.
4. One of the main benefits of _____ is that is enables AI systems to learn and adapt without explicit programming.
5. When analyzing customer behavior, it's important to _____ accurately to avoid mistakes.
6. We plan to _____ next month to automate our data entry processes.
7. Using a _____ has improved the accuracy of our image recognition model.
8. _____ helps us identify potential areas for growth by evaluating trends across different datasets.

FINE & FLOW
www.fineandflow.com
LIVEWORKSHEETS