

2 GRAMMAR obligation and prohibition

a Read the article. If both forms are correct, tick (✓) the sentence.
If only one form is correct, circle the correct form.

What you need to know
before you visit

NEW YORK

1	You have to / must have a visa to enter the USA.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
2	You mustn't / don't have to drive on the left! Here we drive on the right!	<input type="checkbox"/>
3	You mustn't / don't have to pay to visit most museums and art galleries. Entrance is usually free.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4	You have to / must visit the Statue of Liberty. It's very impressive.	<input type="checkbox"/>
5	You mustn't / don't have to smoke in any public building. It is prohibited by law.	<input type="checkbox"/>
6	You have to / must wear a seat belt at all times in a car.	<input type="checkbox"/>
7	You mustn't / don't have to go everywhere by subway. You can take the bus.	<input type="checkbox"/>
8	You must / have to answer some questions when you go through immigration.	<input type="checkbox"/>

b Complete the sentences with must, mustn't, should, or shouldn't.

- 1 Adam must pass all his exams or he won't be able to go to university.
- 2 I think you should buy the blue dress not the red one. It suits you better.
- 3 You mustn't take phones into the exam room.
- 4 You shouldn't eat so many sweets. They aren't good for you.
- 5 You must be quiet when you're in the library.
- 6 Who do you think we will invite to the party?
- 7 I know I shouldn't go out tonight, but I really want to go to the concert.
- 8 I should forget to call my sister back. She left me a message this morning.