

Listen, then choose the correct word and fill in the blanks

Mrs Jones teaches _____. Children have IT _____ a week and teachers have it _____ a week. Mrs Jones helps them make the best use of computers and interactive whiteboards. When she doesn't have classes, she designs programmes.

Mr Jenkins comes to school at 7 o'clock every day. In winter he turns on the _____ and in summer he opens the _____. He fixes _____ or paints the walls. At noon he has coffee in the canteen. In the afternoon he repairs broken chairs or tables in his _____. From time to time children bring a broken _____ to him. He is very friendly and often smiles.

Mr Goldring comes to school 3 times a week to talk with pupils about their _____. Children feel _____. Their parents work until late and they don't have anyone to talk to. School pushes pupils to be successful and this is very _____. He is very happy when they ask him for help.

In the morning Miss Havilland teaches _____ and in the afternoon she works in the _____. She works there four hours a day. The library opens at 12. Some children come to the library _____ week. Some children come only once a _____.

Mr Rogers gets to school at 8. He first greets the teachers in the _____ room. He makes a lot of telephone calls and sends a lot of e-mails. He meets the school _____ twice a month. They discuss school meetings, anti-bullying strategies or problems like skipping classes. To make school a good place for teaching and learning, it's important that teachers, students and parents work things out together.

Match the pairs

- | | |
|---------------|---------------|
| 1 interactive | a chairs |
| 2 front | b whiteboards |
| 3 broken | c calls |
| 4 good | d gate |
| 5 telephone | e list |
| 6 reading | f marks |

Choose the correct answer. Check in the text.

1 She helps us out means

- a) she opens the door for us
- b) she helps us when something is not easy

2 They are into computers means

- a) they like computers
- b) they break computers to see what's inside

3 Skipping classes means

- a) Jumping in the classroom
- b) not coming to school without a good reason

4 A good read means

- a) a person who reads fast
- b) a book that is interesting

5 Anti-bullying strategies means

- a) ways of bullying
- b) ways to stop bullying

6 School outings means

- a) outside walls
- b) day trips

7 We are a good team means

- a) we play football together
- b) we work well together