

PHRASAL VERBS Revision A to H

back sth up

bolt sth down

bring sb up

bring sth about

carry on (doing) sth

carry out* sth

catch on

catch on

catch up on sth

cheer (sb) up

come across sth/sb come over

come up with sth

draw sth up fall out with sb

find sth out

cause

discover

visit sb in the place where they are think of support an explanation

prepare an write ( a plan) begin to understand stop being friendly with sb because you had an argument eat sth very quickly take care of a child until they become an adult

do sth that you didn't do enough of before

continue

do some work or research become/make sb less sad become popular or fashionable find/ meet sb by chance get about (a place)	happen get away with sth	like each other on the first meeting get by	give information to a lot of people get on with sb	recover from get over sth	continue give away information	manage to survive/ live give homework in	return sth give in (to sb's requests)	go somewhere give oneself up	travel around give out (book/paper)	drink sth very quickly give out information	manage to do sth bad without being punished or criticised for give sth back	stop doing sth you do regularly give sth up	hand homework to the teacher go in for (a competition)	allow oneself to be arrested go on	tell information that should be kept secret go on (with sth)	enter (a competition) go round	have a good relationship with sb grow up	distribute sth to several people gulp sth down	visit a person or place head for somewhere	agree to sth after initial resistance hit it off with sb	change from being a child to becoming an adult