The concert

It was Sophia's birthday last week. Her grandfather gave her tickets for a pop concert. The concert was in a stadium. Sophia went with her mother. Mum drove them to the stadium in her car. While they were driving there, they saw a man in the road. He waved at them. Mum stopped her car. 'Do you need any help?' she asked. 'Yes, please,' said the man, 'I've got a problem with my car engine. Can you give me a lift to the stadium? I'm late for work.' 'Of course!' said Mum.

During the journey, Mum turned on the radio. She and the man chatted. Sophia didn't. She was listening to the music and thinking about the band. She was very excited about seeing them on the stage.

When they arrived at the stadium, the man said, 'Come with me, Sophia. I've got a surprise for you.' Sophia and Mum followed him. He took them behind the stage. Sophia saw the singer, and the other members of the band. Sophia talked to the band members for a few minutes and Mum took lots of photos of them. When it was time for the concert to start, a woman took Sophia and Mum to sit in the best seats at the front.

After the concert, Sophia said, 'What an amazing day!'

PART 3:

Emma Green – Young Animal Lover

Emma Green has won the Young Animal Lover of the Year award. She is the youngest person to receive this award. When she was a child, she used to feed stray cats and dogs near her home because her family didn't have enough money to keep a pet.

When Emma grew up and got a job, she decided to help more animals by putting reusable plates around the parks and her home. Soon, more cats and dogs came to her for food. Emma chose to take care all of them. People in her town noticed Emma's kindness and began raising funds to support her.

Now, Emma has a small shelter for all the cats and dogs that she has found. She spends her weekends feeding and playing with them. When Emma won the award, she was very surprised. She didn't know there was an award for helping animals. Emma feels proud because she has done something special for the animals she loves.
