G6 UNIT 2 ANCIENT KIDS 3

Vocabulary (Reading 2)- Conjunctive Adverbs

1. Read and choose the suitable conjunctive adverb for each sentence:

therefore	in contrast	nonetheless	for instance
furthermore	instead	thus	on the contrary
meanwhile	finally	likewise	on the other hand
	still	indeed

The nature photographer ventured out into Death Valley intending to photograph the area's famous wildflowers. _____, she became fascinated by the number of large, black crows circling overhead and spent the day taking pictures of them.

For the past several years, Dereck and Beverly Joubert's work has focused on the big cats. _____, they've been studying lions, jaguars, cheetahs, tigers, and others whose populations are declining due to hunting and habitat loss.

In China, mountainous areas are being flattened to make more room for new construction; _____, in the United States, mountaintops are being removed so that miners can access coal reserves.

Bernard is in peak physical condition. _____, he should encounter little trouble while training for the New York City Marathon in November.

Some wild animals are primarily monogamous. Swans, _____, form bonds that last many years and sometimes for life. _____, French angelfish live, hunt, and travel with their chosen mates and form bonds that often last their entire lives.

Oysters don't have ears; _____, they're able to use sound to locate reefs. They sense vibrations in the water, which guide them to their homes.

Oceanographer Sylvia Alice Earle worked to raise awareness of ocean pollution and overfishing; _____, she led the first all-female team on the groundbreaking Tektite II experiment, a project that explored undersea habitats.

Our SUV broke down on the highway, and we were stranded for hours. _____, a tow truck came and gave us a ride to the nearest service station.

One might assume that well-known painter Vincent van Gogh was highly successful during his lifetime. _____, while he painted more than eight hundred of canvases, just one sold when he was alive: The Red Vineyard.

When Alec and Lacey visited Montana, Alec went to a dude ranch and Glacier National Park. _____, Lacey took a river-rafting trip and saw wilk elk for the first time.

She's quite petite. _____, her younger sister is tall.

Some people might assume that space is a pristine and infinite void. _____, it's filled with orbiting garbage.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Read and choose the correct answer:

"LuAnn, please close the door," said Mom. LuAnn, please close the door, "said Mom. "LuAnn, please close the door, said Mom." "LuAnn, please close the door." said Mom.	"What time does the game start? asked Nanette." "What time does the game start?" asked Nanette. "What time does the game start," asked Nanette. "What time does the game start? asked Nanette."
He said: "Do not be sad about your grade." He said, " Do not be sad about your grade," " Do not be sad about your grade, " he said. " Do not be sad about your grade." he said.	Tylor, said Jill, "the court awarded custody of you to your father." "Tylor", said Jill, "the court awarded custody of you to your father." Jill said: " Tylor, the court awarded custody of you to your father." " Tylor, the court awarded custody of you to your father." Jill said.
" All right," she said, " We can go." " All right, she said, we can go." " All right," she said. " We can go." she said. " All right," she said, " we can go."	Charles said, " I will give you a ride to Aeon," Charles said: " I will give you a ride to Aeon." Charles said, " I will give you a ride to Aeon." "Charles said, " I will give you a ride to Aeon."

3. Read and add commas, quotation marks, and question marks as needed:

I'll take you dancing Daniel said.

The teacher said our test is tomorrow, not today.

I'll try she said but I won't like it.

I asked But why can't you come with us

Are you ready she asked.

Lucia asked me Do you speak French or Italian

Where do you live he asked me.

LIVEWORKSHEETS