

1. Read the story and guess the job or the character

Once upon a time, in a small, busy town, there were many friendly people with interesting jobs.

One morning, a policeman named Tom walked down the street. He made sure everyone was safe and happy. He waved at Mrs. Green, the shop assistant, who was opening her store. Mrs. Green smiled and said, "Good morning, Tom! Come in for some fresh bread!" But Tom was too busy; he had to check that everything was fine in the town.

Down the road, a postman named Sam rode his bicycle. He had a big bag full of letters. He stopped at every house and gave people their mail. Sam was very fast and always had a smile on his face. He loved his job.

Nearby, a photographer named Lily was taking pictures of the park. She loved taking photos of trees, flowers, and happy families. She saw an artist named Ben sitting on a bench. Ben was painting a beautiful picture of the park. “Your painting is amazing, Ben!” said Lily. Ben laughed and said, “Thank you, Lily! Your photos are wonderful too!”

Suddenly, they heard the sound of a loud siren. A big, red fire truck drove by. It was Sam the firefighter and his team. They were going to put out a small fire in an old building. Everyone cheered, “Go, Sam! You can do it!” The brave firefighters quickly put out the fire and saved the day.

Nearby, at the hospital, a kind doctor named Emma was helping a little girl with a broken arm. “You will be okay,” Emma said, giving the girl a big smile. Emma loved helping people feel better.

In the afternoon, everyone went to visit Mr. Brown, the farmer, at his farm. Mr. Brown showed them his animals: cows, chickens, and sheep. He also showed them the vegetables he grew. “Look at my big, red tomatoes!” Mr. Brown said proudly. Everyone clapped and thanked him for the delicious food he grew.

In the evening, all the people of the town came together at the park. They laughed, talked, and shared stories about their day. The town was happy and safe, thanks to all the wonderful people with their important jobs.

2. True/False

- The policeman's name is Tom.
True
- Mrs. Green is a doctor in the town.
False
- The postman, Sam, rides a bicycle to deliver letters.
True
- Lily, the photographer, loves painting pictures of the park.
False
- Ben is an artist who paints beautiful pictures.
True
- Sam the firefighter drives a green fire truck.
False
- The firefighters saved the town from a small fire.
True
- Doctor Emma helps people feel better at the hospital.
True
- Mr. Brown grows only fruits on his farm.
False
- In the evening, everyone in the town goes to bed early without meeting.
False

3. Answer the questions

- What is the name of the policeman in the story?
- Who is the shop assistant in the town?
- How does the postman, Sam, deliver letters?
- What does Lily, the photographer, like to take pictures of?
- Who is the artist that paints pictures in the park?
- What color is the fire truck that Sam the firefighter drives?
- What do the firefighters do to help the town?
- Where does Doctor Emma work, and who does she help?
- What does Mr. Brown show everyone at his farm?
- What do the people of the town do in the evening at the park?