COMPARISONS

Comparative and superlative forms of adjectives

Use

- We use the comparative form of adjectives to compare two people or things.
- We use the superlative form of adjectives to compare three or more people or things.

Form

- To form the comparative form of short adjectives, we add -er (than). To form the comparative form of long adjectives, we use more + adjective (+ than).

Harry's taller than Peter.

This book is more interesting than that one.

- To form the superlative form of short adjectives, we use the + -est. To form the superlative form of long adjectives, we use the most + adjective.

Amy is the tallest girl in our class.

This is the most expensive dress in the shop.

- These adjectives are irregular:

good → better → the best

bad → worse → the worst
