

Choose the correct option

1. In our town, there is no.....of parks where families can enjoy their weekends together.
2. The final results of the match are to be seen as the game is still ongoing and very exciting.
3. Daylight time usually begins in March, making evenings longer and more enjoyable for everyone.
4. Time and....., she has proven that hard work leads to success in her studies and career.
5. He tried to fix his bike by himself, but it was to.....avail since he needed special tools.
6. She doesn't.....with social media because she prefers to spend time reading books instead.
7. The history of this city can be traced.....to over three hundred years ago, which is fascinating.
8. When the new rules were announced, they came into immediately for the next season of the league.
9. It is important to putpractice the skills you learn so that they become second nature to you.
10. The committee did with the old policies that were no longer effective in promoting community involvement.