Name:

1) Match words to definitions.

1. GM
2. A guinea pig
3. Vaccine
4. Pesticide
5. Gene
6. contaminated

a. A unit of information inside a cell which controls what a living thing will be like.

b. A chemical substance that is used for killing insects that eat food crops.

c. Dirty, harmful

d. A plant or an animal that has been changed by scientists.

e. A type of medicine that prevents people from getting a disease.

f. Someone who is used in a test for something such as a new medicine or product

2) Tick the arguments "FOR" genetically modified food?

1. It is quick solution that will lead to other problems. (   )

2. Crops require little water and fertilizers. (   )

3. GM helps nations suffering from famine. (   )

4. It requires expensive technology. (   )

5. Crops are enriched with vitamins and minerals. (   )

6. Provide resistance to certain insects but only for a short period of time. (   )

7. Crops require little supervision and care. (   )

8. GM foods are tasteless and potentially dangerous. (   )

3) Choose the correct option.

1. He _____ me that he had read up on the subject.

2. They _____ there were controls everywhere.

3. He _____ they would solve the problem.

4. The man _____ that organic food cost more.

5. She _____ the man that she was worried.

6. She _____ she didn't like being a guinea pig.

4) Complete the reported statements.

1. "GM food has a lot of benefits"

He said GM food _____ a lot of benefits.

2. "We will find a cure soon"

They said _____ a cure soon.

3. "Lost food is being imported now"

She said lost food _____ then.

4. "A lot can be done to help my people"

The president said a lot _____ to help _____ people.

5. "My production started before I knew the danger"

She said _____ production _____ before _____ the danger.

5) Write direct speech into the speech bubbles.
1. He said that GM food wasn't harmful

2. He said that all food would be GM

3. She said it didn't taste any different

4. She said she couldn't help me.

5. She said that Scientists had recently produced a perfect apple.