

Phrasal verbs – BE 3

be after	= try to find/ get	be in	= be submitted/ arrive
be along	= arrive/ join sb	be in	= be at work/ at home be away	= be elsewhere/ on holiday	be in for	= be incarcerated for be against	= be opposed to	be in on	= know about/ be involved
be above	= be too good/ mature to do st	be not on	= unacceptable
be around	= be near/ socialize with	be on about	= talk about st
be down	= reduced/ less	be on to	= figure out/ realize the truth be down	= be depressed	be off	= not have be down on	= have negative feelings toward sb	be out of	= finished be down with	= have an illness	be out for	= seek/ pursue be cut out for	= be suitable/ have necessary qualities	be over	= finished be cut up	= be upset	be there for	= be available to support be fed up	= be bored/ upset/ sick of st	be up to	= do/ be involved in st
		be with	= agree with/ understand sb's point

- I don't think this behavior is acceptable. It's simply _____.
A. be off B. be there for C. be not on D. be along
- She's ____ to win this competition. She's been preparing for months.
A. fed up B. cut up C. in for D. down with
- My brother is ____ a flu, so he won't be joining us tonight.
A. down with B. down on C. in D. out of
- I'll ____ at the restaurant at around 7 PM. Wait for me there.
A. be down B. be along C. be away D. be up to
- I can't handle any more of this; I'm completely ____ with it.
A. fed up B. be off C. be along D. be down on
- She's not ____ that kind of work; it's too physically demanding.
A. be down B. be cut out for C. be in D. be out of
- I'll ____ you tomorrow to discuss the details of the project.
A. be off B. be after C. be around D. be on to
- They're ____ a difficult time at the moment, so let's support them.
A. in for B. in on C. out of D. down on
- She's ____ to something suspicious; I can feel it.
A. in for B. up to C. be on D. be down with
- When it comes to housework, I'm usually ____ a lot of chores.
A. in on B. down on C. in for D. in
- I was ____ a new smartphone, but they were all sold out.
A. after B. over C. along D. off
- They are always ____ me for my decisions. It's frustrating.
A. in for B. be along C. be over D. be down on
- I'll be ____ from work all next week, so let's meet after that.
A. over B. away C. up to D. in
- The meeting is ____ next Monday, so make sure to prepare.
A. in on B. in C. cut up D. be along
- He's ____ a difficult phase, but he'll get through it.
A. in for B. be over C. be on D. be cut out for
- I'm ____ with you on this decision; I think it's the best choice.
A. up to B. over C. with D. around
- The project is finally ____ and we can all take a break.
A. over B. along C. up to D. in for
- She's ____ in the new plan and is excited to get started.
A. up to B. on about C. in on D. out of
- The company is ____ serious challenges this year.
A. fed up B. in for C. on about D. out of
- He's ____ all the gossip around the office.
A. up to B. down with C. on about D. be around