

Too / Enough

1. The soup is _____ salty to eat.
2. He was strong _____ to lift the box.
3. This dress is _____ expensive for my budget.
4. She didn't work hard _____ to pass the exam.
5. The water is _____ cold for swimming.
6. Is your score high _____ to win the competition?
7. The movie was _____ long for me to sit through.
8. They aren't _____ fast to keep up with us.
9. The story was _____ boring to keep reading.
10. We don't have _____ time to finish this project.

11. The hill is _____ steep for a beginner to climb.
12. His grades were _____ good to qualify for the scholarship.
13. This chair isn't strong _____ to hold his weight.
14. The box is _____ heavy for me to carry alone.
15. The music was _____ loud for me to hear you speak.
16. Is there _____ space in the car for one more person?
17. The book was _____ interesting to put down.
18. She's _____ young to go to the club.
19. He wasn't brave _____ to face the challenge.
20. I didn't bring _____ money to buy lunch.
21. The exercise was _____ difficult for beginners.

22. The child isn't mature _____ to handle that situation.
23. The ice cream is _____ sweet to eat without water.
24. They didn't run fast _____ to win the race.
25. I was _____ tired to continue working.
26. He wasn't qualified _____ for the position.
27. There weren't _____ chairs for everyone to sit.
28. The dog is _____ big to fit in that crate.
29. Are you excited _____ to start the project?
30. The road was _____ icy to drive safely.
31. She isn't strong _____ to open the jar.
32. This test is _____ easy for advanced students.

33. They didn't get _____ votes to win the election.
34. The sauce is _____ spicy to enjoy.
35. The table isn't wide _____ to hold both laptops.
36. He was _____ afraid to jump off the diving board.
37. She didn't arrive early _____ to get a front-row seat.
38. The bread is _____ stale to eat.
39. He wasn't _____ skilled to join the advanced class.
40. Is there _____ food for everyone at the party?