

Vocabulary training

Connectors

Match two halves of a sentence.

1. Rachel enjoys living in the city.

In a nutshell, they worry about her safety.

2. They could either stay in and watch a movie or go out for dinner.

On top of that, they had to wait in a long line at security.

3. Emma's parents always tell her to come home early, usually by 9 p.m. on school nights.

All the guests moved indoors to continue the celebration.

4. Their flight was delayed by two hours.

However, she sometimes misses the quiet countryside.

5. In spite of the cold weather, Tom decided to go for a run.

Finally, they returned home after a month of adventure.

6. Although Alice prepared well for the exam, she felt anxious.

In the end, they decided to order pizza and watch a film at home.

7. They canceled the outdoor event because of the rain.

On the contrary, he found it quite easy.

8. Matthew worked very hard on his presentation.

He put on his warmest clothes and went out to exercise.

9. They traveled across three countries in Europe.

Otherwise, you won't have time to relax before bed.

10. Mia won't join the club unless her friend Lily joins too.

She couldn't sleep well the night before it.

11. James thought the exam would be difficult.

She doesn't want to go alone.

12. You need to finish your homework now.

As a result, he received excellent feedback from his colleagues.

