MAIN VERBS

Charlie Cunningham – You Sigh

So few cares, and ever so unprepared

My mind is still not made up

You sigh, there's so much I could have said

You tried, and keep strong

You sigh, there's so much I could have said

But I wasn't ready then, and I'm still not

You sigh, there's so much I could have said

Don't cry, all day long

You sigh, there's so much I could have said

but I wasn't ready then, and I'm still not.
