

name:

class:

Self-Reflection

After learning Unit 1, this is the time for you to self-reflect or look back at your learning experience by answering the following questions. There is no right or wrong answer: Just be honest.

1

On a scale from 1-5, how do you rate your understanding about legend? fill up the stars.

2

Can you?

Check one of the boxes below:

- ☐ I can identify the characteristics of the legends that i read or listen to
- ☐ I can identify past tense, action verbs, and sequence words in the legends that I read ir listen to
- ☐ I can understand implicit and explicit information from texts that are read and listen to
- ☐ I can rewrite a legend with an appropriate schematic structure and linguistic features

3

What values have you learned from this unit?

4

What is your favourite learning activity in this unit? Why?

5

What is you least favourite learning experience in this unit?

6

What is your least favourite learning experience in this unit?

7

How does material you have learned in this unit relate to real-world situations and problems?

8

What would you like to improve?

9

What do you want to learn more in the future?

10

In your daily life, how will you apply what you have already learned?