

1. The phone call that changed our world took place on 3rd April, 1973. True/False
2. Martin Cooper was walking in the street when he made the first public mobile phone call. True/False
3. Martin Cooper worked for Motorola and Joel S. Engel worked for a rival company. True/False
4. The first mobile phone Martin used weighed only 100 grams. True/False
5. The mobile phone Martin Cooper used in 1973 could last for several hours on a single battery charge. True/False
6. The mobile phone in 1973 had a touch screen, like modern smartphones. True/False
7. The first public mobile phone call was made to Joel S. Engel, who was sitting at his desk. True/False
8. Martin Cooper used the first mobile phone to call his friend and not a business competitor. True/False
9. Today's smartphones weigh less than the mobile phone Martin Cooper used in 1973. True/False
10. The mobile phone Martin Cooper used could only make phone calls and had no other functions. True/False
11. You can talk for hours today on a smartphone without needing to charge it. True/False
12. Today's smartphones allow you to choose a different ringtone for each of your contacts. True/False