Think about the context: the friends are exploring a dark and mysterious place. Each sentence makes a suggestion or asks what they could do, so think about whether it is a recommendation (should) or a proposal (shall). and choose the multiple choice or correct answer that goes in the space.

1 | Title: The Mystery of the Haunted Library

Context of the Story

One night, three friends—Ana, Luis, and Carla—decide to explore the old town library. They've heard rumors that it's haunted, and Ana, the bravest of the three, has a plan to find out if the rumors are true. Together, they sneak into the dark, dusty building, wondering what they might find.

The friends enter the library silently. The place is dark and full of dust. Ana takes a flashlight and turns it on.

Ana: "(1) _____ we really go in here? It looks kind of scary..."

Luis: "Well, if we want to see a ghost, (2) _____ we keep moving forward?"

Carla: "Ana, it's a good idea, but (3) _____ we have told someone about our plan?"

Ana: "Don't worry. We'll be fine. But if we get scared, (4) _____ we leave immediately?"

Luis: "Good idea! And if we find any evidence of ghosts, (5) _____ we tell everyone at school?"

Carla: "Yes, but maybe (6) _____ we keep it a secret for now. Let's see if we actually find something."
