

Personal Narrative Writing

A personal narrative is a story about yourself. It shares a significant event or experience you've had and the impact it had on you. Personal narratives are written in the first person and often include rich details and emotions to engage the reader.

Fill in the Blank: Fill in the blank with the correct words.

1. A personal narrative is a story about _____.
2. Personal narratives often include _____ details and emotions.
3. The story is usually written in the _____ person.
4. A significant _____ or experience is often shared in a personal narrative.
5. The _____ of the event on the writer is an important part of the narrative.

Word bank: first, yourself, impact, significant, rich

Multiple Choice Questions: Choose the correct answer from the choices for each question.

1. What point of view is typically used in a personal narrative?
 - a) Second person
 - b) Third person
 - c) First person
 - d) Omniscient
2. Which of the following is NOT a characteristic of a personal narrative?
 - a) Written in the first person
 - b) Shares a personal experience
 - c) Includes fictional characters
 - d) Describes emotions and feelings
3. Why are rich details important in a personal narrative?
 - a) To confuse the reader
 - b) To make the story longer
 - c) To engage the reader and make the story vivid
 - d) To hide the main event
4. What type of event is typically shared in a personal narrative?
 - a) A routine event
 - b) A significant event
 - c) An imaginary event
 - d) A future event
5. In a personal narrative, the writer often reflects on:
 - a) Other people's opinions
 - b) The weather
 - c) The impact of the event on themselves
 - d) The history of storytelling

Open Ended Question:

1. Describe a significant event in your life that you could write about in a personal narrative.
(Minimum of 150 words)