Grammar training

Conditionals

Complete the conversation.

Sarah: Tom, if we _____ the lottery one day, what would you want to do with the money?

Tom: Hmm, I'd definitely want to travel the world! Imagine if we _____ every country together—how amazing would that be?

Sarah: Yeah, that would be incredible. If we had enough money, we _____ even buy a little house in Italy. I've always dreamed of that.

Tom: If I _____ that, I would have suggested a trip to Italy sooner!

Sarah: Well, it's not too late! If we _____ saving now, we can plan a trip next year.

Tom: True. But if I save every penny, I _____ to cut out all my weekend coffee dates with you.

Sarah: No way! If you _____ up coffee, you'll be miserable.

Tom: You're probably right. If I _____ get my caffeine fix, I'm not much fun to be around.

Sarah: But seriously, if we're careful with our spending, we _____ it happen. And if I _____ a good deal on flights, we'll book it right away!

Tom: Deal! And if you need any help with planning, just let me know.

Sarah: If you had planned our last trip, we _____ up in the middle of nowhere! Remember when we got lost?

Tom: Hey, if you _____ me to take that "scenic route," we wouldn't have had that adventure!

Sarah: Fair enough. And if we _____ lost, we wouldn't have found that cute little cafe by the lake.

Tom: Exactly! Sometimes getting lost is the best part. But I still think that if we'd had a proper map, it _____ easier.

Sarah: True, but if everything _____ smoothly, we wouldn't have had those funny stories to tell.

Tom: You're right. If I hadn't met you, my life _____ way too predictable.

Sarah: Aww. If I _____ you were going to be so sweet, I'd have brought you coffee.

Tom: Well, if you _____ me coffee tomorrow, I'll happily take you to that new Italian restaurant.

Sarah: Deal! And if you behave, I _____ even let you plan our next trip.

Tom: If you _____ me with that, I promise I'll do my best not to get us lost.

Sarah: If that _____ , at least we'll have another adventure together.

English__on_the_go

LIVEWORKSHEETS