PARAGRAPH

1. Match the main ideas on the left with the supporting details on the right.

Main ideas	Supporting details
1. Gestures are even more effective than spoken words. _____ 2. Gestures have different meanings in different cultures. _____ 3. Gestures can support the meaning of the spoken words. _____ 4. Watching a movie at home is more comfortable than watching a movie at the movie theater. _____ 5. Watching a movie at the movie theater is better than watching a movie at home. _____	A. The screens are bigger, and the sound quality is much better. B. You can lie everywhere to watch a movie without having to worry about annoying others. C. Scientific research shows that 50% of our messages comes from gestures and other body language. D. In many cases, they can express your feelings better than what you say. E. For example, the universal OK sign means "I want the changes in coins" in Japan.

2. With the following paragraph:
   - 2.1. Fill in the blank (.....) with the most suitable word
   - 2.2. Put the supporting sentences in the correct places (_____)

   A. Besides, they wrongly perceive violence as the solution to every conflict they may have in life.
   B. A study shows that violent viewing at 8 may cause the child to commit violent crimes at 18.
   C. Watching violent movies put children in a permanent state of nervousness and anxiety, which leads to frequent nightmares at night.

[1] Violent movies adversely affect children in ..... ways. ....., they harm children's mental health. [2]_____. [3] Also, children will always feel weak and tired. ....., violent movies affect children's attitude toward violence in the real world. [4] In movies, violent criminals often don't face any consequences or punishments for what they do, so violent movies make children think that violence is a normal part of life. [5] _____. [6]....., violent movies cause a growth in aggression among children. [7]Since children, especially those of young ages, tend to imitate what they see on screens, violent movies encourage violent behaviors among these children and contribute to the increasing rate of violent abuse at schools. [8]More disturbingly, these effects of violent movies last very long. [9]_____ . [10] I have a 8-year-old brother who watch violent movies a lot and I am very worried about him. [11]....., violent movies negatively affect children's mental health, and their attitude toward real-world violence, and cause a growth in aggression among children.

- 2.3. Which two sentences should be crossed out?

Sentence 1	Sentence 5	Sentence 9
Sentence 2	Sentence 6	Sentence 10
Sentence 3	Sentence 7	Sentence 11
Sentence 4	Sentence 8

LIVEWORKSHEETS