

Be, Have, and There Is/Are

Part A: Fill in the blanks (Affirmative, Negative, and Questions)

1. She ___ (be) my best friend.
2. There ___ (be) two books on the table.
3. ___ you ___ (have) any pets at home?
4. We ___ (not be) ready to leave.
5. ___ there ___ (be) any food in the fridge?
6. He ___ (have) a red car.
7. I ___ (not have) any siblings.
8. ___ they ___ (be) at the park now?
9. There ___ (not be) enough chairs for everyone.
10. ___ you ___ (be) happy with your new job?

Part B: Rewrite the sentences correctly if there is a mistake.

1. There is a lot of people at the concert. → .....
2. She are very tired after work. → .....
3. They not have any pets at home. → .....
4. Is there many cars in the parking lot? → .....
5. I be excited to meet you. → .....

Part C: Using the words provided, create sentences in the correct structure (affirmative, negative, or question).

1. (he / be / at school today)
→ .....
2. (there / be / a meeting this afternoon?)
→ .....
3. (we / have / enough money / not)
→ .....
4. (they / be / not / interested in the movie)
→ .....
5. (there / be / any / questions?)
→ .....

