

5 Have you been to the doctor yet?

1. Review the Vocabulary. Write your own study notes (or translation) for each word or phrase.

Vocabulary	My study notes	Vocabulary	My study notes
have a sore throat		have a shot
have a cough		have an X-ray
have a rash		take medicine
have a toothache		have a cleaning
have a check-up		get a filling
have a vaccination		get braces

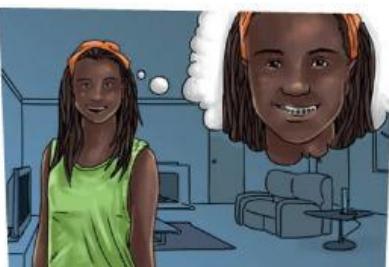

2. Complete each statement with words and phrases from the Vocabulary.

1. Maybe you broke your arm!
You should have an X-ray so you can be sure.

2. Maybe you have the flu.
You need to take medicine.

3. You're really sick! And you have a fever, too. You should definitely see a doctor.

4. Look! I have a bruise.
Maybe I should go see Dr. Smith.

5. The orthodontist says I need to get braces so my teeth will look great in a year or two.

6. I'll call the dentist. Maybe you need to get a filling for that tooth.

3. Complete the statements, using superlatives and the present perfect with ever. Use contractions where possible.

1. This is the best (good) song I've ever heard (hear)!
2. That's the funniest (funny) movie we have ever seen (see)!
3. Meena is the nicest (nice) person I have ever met (meet)!
4. This is the worst (bad) pasta they have ever eaten (eat)!
5. These are the juiciest (juicy) peaches he has ever bought (buy)!
6. It's the most beautiful (beautiful) picture she has ever painted (paint)!