1 Complete each sentence with food, dish or meal plus a word from the box in the correct form to make an appropriate collocation. There is one word in the box you do not need to use.

balanced ~~convenience~~ elaborate filling light shortage simple source supply

0 Some say an egg is the ultimate ..convenience food.. – it is easy to prepare and comes in its own packaging.

1 At home, I prefer cooking .... like a piece of fish and some salad, nothing too complicated. I leave ..... with lots of ingredients and beautiful presentation to restaurant chefs.

2 The main ..... for many people in the world is either rice or potatoes.

3 That ..... was so ..... I could hardly move afterwards.

4 Danielle only eats ..... for lunch. Anything too heavy and she can't stay awake in the afternoons.

5 Thanks to developments in agriculture, the total world ..... is still increasing, although there can easily be local ..... when bad weather destroys crops.

2 For questions 1–6, complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence, using the word given. Do not change the word given. You must use between two and five words, including the word given.

1 This is the worst film I've ever seen.
BAD
I have ..... film before.

2 I should have drunk less coffee before I went to bed last night.
TOO
I couldn't sleep because ..... coffee last night.

3 Sanjay wasn't at work on time for the meeting.
SO
Sanjay was ..... that he missed the meeting.

4 The train ticket home was too expensive.
ENOUGH
We didn't ..... the train ticket home.

5 The classroom was so crowded that we had to turn people away.
FIT
There were ..... in the classroom.

6 The day was so lovely that everybody went to the beach instead of going to school.
SUCH
Nobody went to school because ..... a lovely day.

3 For questions 1–8, read the text below and think of the word which best fits each gap. Use only one word in each gap. There is an example at the beginning (0).

Interviews: answering the unanswerable question

Interviews are intended to evaluate a candidate's personality in order (0) ..to.. determine their fitness for a particular position. Imagine the interviewer asks you this question: 'How many petrol stations are in the USA?' You almost certainly have no idea (and, on the other (1) ....., the interviewer probably doesn't either), but don't panic (2) ..... a correct answer is probably not really expected. It is questions such (3) ..... this that give the interviewer an insight (4) ..... your problem-solving abilities, amongst other things, so be enthusiastic, creative and enjoy the challenge. Your ability to think under pressure and deal with difficult situations will be on show, (5) ..... will possibly have more impact than your beautifully written CV. So, don't rush to answer and risk revealing your nervousness. (6) ..... you need to do is take your time, think it through and only (7) ..... attempt an answer. In (8) ..... words, demonstrate a logical thought process. If you can, [illegible]

LIVEWORKSHEETS