

02 FEELINGS

VOCABULARY Feelings

1 How are these people feeling? Match the adjectives with the speakers 1-7.

happy    guilty    disappointed    exhausted pleased    confused    furious

I feel really bad about losing Mum's favourite ring. How on earth am I going to tell her?

I can't move a muscle and I could sleep for a week. That's the last time I go cycling with Alex.

I don't get this. The map says number 24 is opposite the pizza place, but all I can see is a big block of flats.

I really expected to get that job. I've got all the qualifications and loads of experience. I couldn't believe it when they said no.

I love the peace and quiet here. You can just forget all the stresses of everyday life.

This is just a nightmare! They say we can't have a refund. I'm going to complain to the manager.

A new iPod! That's just what I wanted. Thanks, that's really kind of you.

2 Complete the conversations with the pairs of words and phrases.

upset / worried    down / fed up in such a bad mood / furious    terrible / stressed

- 1 A: Are you OK?
B: No, I feel ..... at the moment. I'm so ..... out at work that I can't sleep at night.
- 2 A: Is Magda OK? I think she's been crying.
B: She's ..... because her sister's in hospital. She must be really ..... about her.
- 3 A: Why are you ..... ?
B: I crashed my dad's sports car last night and he's absolutely ..... with me.
- 4 A: Don't speak to Eddie. He isn't in a very good mood today.
B: How come he's so ..... ?
A: He hasn't scored a goal for weeks and he says he's really ..... with training.

Learner tip

Remember to record adjectives with the correct preposition, e.g. fed up with, worried about, confused by. Sometimes an adjective can go with more than one preposition, depending on what you are talking about, e.g. Why are you so upset with me? I was upset about the sad news. If you are not sure, check in a dictionary. Remember to write example sentences in your vocabulary notebook.

SPEAKING PRACTICE

Read the question.

Click on 'start voice recording 'and talk for about 1 minute about each matter.

- What is something you are completely fed up with in your daily routine? What's your daily routine?
- Is there anything you are really worried about this month? How are you handling it?
- Have you ever felt ashamed of something you did in the past? How do you feel about it now?
- When was the last time you were pleasantly surprised by something unexpected? What was it?
- Have you ever been upset with a friend or family member?
- What were you upset about yesterday? Does the weather ever affect your mood?