1) Listen to six speakers. Is each speaker American or British?

2) Read and write the American English equivalents for the words in bold.

I am a real traveller. I love exploring the world and so far, I haven't had any unpleasant experiences. Probably, because I plan my return _____ trips extremely carefully. I never buy single _____ tickets as they tend to be more expensive as the return _____ ones. To avoid long queues _____ , I organize all my bookings _____ on-line.

I prefer to travel first class but on shorter distances I buy economy class _____ tickets.

When I arrive at the airport, the first thing I do is to use the public toilet _____ . You may never know how long you have to wait in the queue _____ at the rent-a-car desk. After signing the documents at the agency and paying the bills _____ I need to drag my hand luggage _____ and suitcases to the ground floor _____ where the car park _____ is.

Getting to the city-centre _____ fast where my accommodation is

I opt for the motorway _____ . If I decide not to rent a car - because I don't have any heavy hand luggage _____ , for example - then I take the underground _____ . With the help of a lift _____ I can easily get to the station. Quickly check the timetable _____ and find the right platform of my train.

LIVEWORKSHEETS