

1 Choose the correct answer from a, b, c or d.

- One of the services that email provides you with is
 - sending files
 - printing documents
 - performing a scan of the file
 - controlling the language used on your device
- One of the necessary steps to install the program from a file downloaded from the Internet is to
 - open the PowerPoint file
 - double-click on the file
 - access the installation file SETUP.EXE
 - both b & c
- All the following are the components of the email address, except
 - the user name
 - the symbol @
 - the domain name
 - your phone number
- You can to uninstall a program on your devices.
 - download an antivirus program
 - restore files from the recycle bin
 - use the Control Panel
 - switch to the keyboard
- is one of the cloud computing service providers.
 - Google Cloud Platform
 - Paint
 - Scanner
 - DVD

2 Put (✓) or (✗) for the following sentences.

- Email is a system for sending and receiving messages over the Internet. ()
- The windows operating systems runs on embedded systems. ()
- The user name is located at the end of the email address. ()
- The macOS operating systems is used on Apple computers. ()
- Cloud computing enables you to process data in a difficult way. ()
- Connecting a local printer (directly connected to the computer) requires Plug and Play. ()