

Part 2 (6 points, 1 point per item). You are going to read a text about one of the oldest English documents. For questions 30–35, complete the text with the words from the box below. There are two words that you do not need to use. There is an example (0).

Magna Carta

belong    inspired    involved    made    means    opportunity    part    place    set

Magna Carta, one of the most important and well-known documents of medieval England, (0) inspired the US Constitution and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The four surviving original copies of Magna Carta were brought together in 2015 for the first time in history. The event took (30) _____ over three days and launched a year of celebrations across the UK and the world to mark the document's 800th anniversary.

Magna Carta, which (31) _____ 'Great Charter' in Latin, was signed in 1215. The document is seen as the basis of Britain's constitution, outlining a unique (32) _____ of basic rights. It is believed that about 250 copies of the original manuscript were created and sent to legal and religious officials across the country to make sure it was carried out.

Today there are four surviving copies of Magna Carta. Two copies (33) _____ to the British Library, one copy is owned by Lincoln Cathedral and one by Salisbury Cathedral. All three organisations were (34) _____ in the event, which was held at the British Library in London.

Before the event, the library had said it would be a "unique (35) _____ for researchers and the public to see the original surviving documents side-by-side."