III. Read the paragraph below. There are 7 mistakes related to the use of Past Simple and Present Simple in active and passive forms. Find and correct 6 of them, there is 1 example.

Last night, my bike is stolen from outside my house, so I had to walk to school today. I usually ride my bike every day, so not having it this morning make my day a bit more difficult. My family decides to report the incident to the local police, and they promised to investigate.

Interestingly, something similar happens to my friend Emily last month. Her bike was leaving outside her house overnight, and it disappeared by the morning. Luckily, her bike is found a few days later near a park. Since then, she always locks her bike indoors before going to bed.

In general, incidents like this remind us to be more careful with our belongings. My parents will have to replace my bike if it isn't found soon, as I need it to get to school. They was considering getting a better lock as well, to make sure it doesn't happen again.
