Exercise 1: Choose the correct option to complete each sentence. Then, identify which one of the sentences is incorrect.

1. The latest research suggest / suggests that people are watching more documentaries on nature.
2. The Apple headquarters are/is located in California.
3. A lot of/ Much coffee is gwon in Brazilia.
4. Topics like health and wellness is / are becoming more popular in media.
5. Many/ Lots of people believe social media impacts mental health.
6. The latest news about climate change isn't / aren't always clear to the public.

Exercise 2: Complete the sentences below with phrases from the box to reflect your opinions.

aren't enough | is too much | are too many | isn't enough

1. There_____ information available on this topic.
2. There_____stories about positive news in the media.
3. There_____advertisements interrupting TV shows.
4. There _____young voices represented in politics.
5. There _____focus on learning practical skills in schools.
6. There _____social events for young people in the community.

Exercise 3: Complete the following common sayings with the correct form of the verb. Then, discuss if there are similar sayings in your language.

1. Actions _____ louder than words (speak).
2. Time _____(fly).
3. Honesty _____the best policy (be).
4. Practice _____perfect (make).
5. Knowledge _____priceless. (be)
6. Money_____ (talk).
7. Life _____not easy (be).
8. Ignorance _____bliss (be).

LIVEWORKSHEETS