8A Expressions to discuss shopping

Use the correct form of the expressions from the box to complete the text.

make an impulse buy    be a compulsive shopper    go over her credit limit go window-shopping    have buyer's remorse    be a bargain hunter

Did you ever notice how people have different shopping styles? My mom has always been price conscious and (1) is a bargain hunter. Whenever there's a sale, she combs through everything, looking for the lowest prices. On the other hand, my friend Maggie doesn't even look at price tags and buys everything in sight. She just can't control her urge to shop. She definitely (2) make an impulse buy. She often spends more than the bank allows on her charge cards, but doesn't worry about (3) go over her credit limit. Now, my sister Shelly has a totally different shopping style. She drives me insane because she never buys anything. She prefers to (4) go window-shopping, just peering at the displays of the latest fashions. Crazy, right? As for me, I have to admit that at times, I have the urge to go on a shopping spree. Shopping is all about having fun. I certainly don't plan to buy three pairs of shoes, but all of a sudden, there they are in my shopping bag! OK, I admit to (5) have buyer's remorse every once in a while. But I confess that I (6) be a bargain hunter on occasion and end up returning things. There's only so much room in my closets!
