

Spelling: Personality Adjectives

Instructions:

1. Read each sentence below and figure out the missing personality adjective.
 2. Fill in the blanks with the correct spelling.
 3. Write each adjective three times to practice spelling.
 4. Choose five adjectives and write a sentence using each one.
-

Part 1: Fill in the blanks

1. Anna is very h__lp__l. She always supports her friends.
2. Jake is really c__r__ous; he loves exploring new places and ideas.
3. That boy is r__sp__ns__ble. He always finishes his homework on time.
4. Mary is so ch__e__ful! She smiles all the time.
5. My brother is q__i__t, but he's very kind when you talk to him.
6. Sarah is so cr__a__ive; her art projects are amazing!
7. Peter is i__de__pendent. He prefers working on his own.
8. Lucy is g__n__rous. She always shares her snacks.
9. He's really p__tie__t. He never gets angry, even when he has to wait.
10. Jack can be l__zy sometimes and doesn't like doing homework.
11. Ben is very p__li__e. He always says "please" and "thank you."
12. Claire gets i__pa__ie__t when she has to wait for too long.
13. It's rude to interrupt people when they're talking. (No blanks for this one – just write the word rude three times.)
14. Tom works hard every day. He's very h__rdw__king.
15. She lost her keys again. She can be so irr__sp__ns__ble!

16. The music was l__ud, and we couldn't hear each other.

17. Mia is so fr__e__dly; she always greets everyone with a smile.

18. Jim can be unf__ie__dly if he's in a bad mood.

Part 2: Writing Practice

- Write each personality adjective from Part 1 three times to practice spelling.
- Example: helpful | helpful | helpful

Part 3: Creative Sentences

- Use five of the adjectives from above in your own sentences.