

Rephrasing. Rewrite the second sentence in a way it means the same as the first. Use the given word and the quantity given. Contractions count as two words (except for 'cannot', which counts as one)

1. The nanny forced the baby to eat. MADE (3 words)

The nanny _____ eat

2. I'm sure Tim didn't cook this because she doesn't know how to. COOKED (4 words)

Tim _____ that because she doesn't know how to

3. For a while I believed in ghosts, but now I don't. BELIEVE (3 words)

I _____ in ghosts, but now I don't

4. "OK, I'll help you," said Matilda. AGREED (4 words)

Matilda _____.

5. "I'm sorry I've forgotten my homework again," he said. APOLOGISED (4 words)

He _____ homework again.

6. I'm sure it was great to get the scholarship. BEEN (3 words)

It _____ great to get the scholarship

7. It will all turn out great as long as you don't stop working. UNLESS (3 words)

It will all turn out great _____ working

8. "Where do you think you are going?" his mum said. WHERE (4 words)

His mum wanted to _____ going.

9. I still find driving on the left strange. USED (4 words)

I still haven't _____ on the left.

10. I broke my ankle last Saturday so I can't play tennis. NOT (5 words)

If I _____ last Saturday, I'd be able to play tennis.

11. Don't bother trying to help him, he'll just end up doing what he wants. WORTH (5 words)

It _____ help him, he'll just end up doing what he wants.

12. That actress is only 17. I thought she was older. AS (3 words)

That actress is not _____ I thought.

13. If you speak so fast, it will be very hard for them to understand you. THE (4 words)

The faster _____ it will be for them to understand you.

14. She joined the orchestra only because her teachers asked her to. NOT (words)

She _____ the orchestra if her teachers hadn't asked her to.