Pakistan International School Jeddah

Section A: Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the Islamic greeting "Salaam" mean?

    a) Hello

    b) Peace

    c) Welcome

    d) Good morning

2. Which of the following is Sunnah when giving a greeting?

    a) Replying with a greeting

    b) Ignoring the greeting

    c) Waiting for the other person to greet first

3. How many good deeds does one earn by saying "As-Salaamu alaikum wa rahmatullaahi wa barakaatuh"?

    a) 10

    b) 20

    c) 30

    d) 40

4. When a Muslim greets another with "As-Salaamu alaikum," what is the minimum reply required?

    a) Wa alaikum

    b) Wa alaikum-us salaam

    c) Wa rahmatullaahi

    d) Wa alaikumus salaamu wa rahmatullaahi wa barakaatuh

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Section B: True or False

1. It is obligatory for a Muslim to begin the greeting of Salaam.

   True / False

2. A rider should wait for a walking person to greet him first.

   True / False

3. Greeting youngsters is encouraged in Islam to teach them good manners.

   True / False

4. It is not recommended to greet someone twice if you see them again after a short while.

   True / False

Section C: Fill in the Blanks.

shake	10	salaam	peace

1. The greeting of Islam is _____, which means _____.

2. The Prophet (PBUH) said that saying "As-Salaamu alaikum" is worth _____ good deeds.

3. It is recommended to _____ hands when greeting another Muslim.

LIVEWORKSHEETS