

1 Complete the crossword puzzle.

Across

- 1 An occasion when someone is seen in public.
- 2 A song or single piece of music.
- 3 A piece of writing or a film that has been popular for a long time.

Down

- 1 The actors in a film or play.
- 2 A very popular book that many people have bought.
- 3 To listen or watch something on a device like a tablet or smart TV directly from the internet.
- 4 An example of artistic, musical or written work.
- 5 A set of books published by the same company which have the same subject.

2 Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

appearance broadcasts charts ~~pieces~~ series shot

- 1 I love this opera, it is one of Mozart's most famous*pieces*..... of music.
- 2 The critics say the first book was the best one in the
- 3 Did you see Shakira make her at the music awards last night?
- 4 They most of the indoor scenes of the film at an old house in the south of England.

5 This channel usually the news at 10pm, so let's watch the headlines.

6 Do you know any of the songs in the UK at the moment?

3 Write the jobs next to the correct definitions.

1 This person is in charge of introducing a show. TV presenter.....

2 This person corrects and changes text or film or is in charge of a newspaper or magazine.

3 This is someone who gives their opinion of a book, play or film.

4 These people entertain others by telling jokes.

5 This is someone who writes fictional books.

6 This person is in charge of making a film, show or musical recording.

.....

7 This person produces apps or computer software.

4 Find and correct the mistakes in the text.

If you are looking for a career in the world of entertainment there are various options. If you enjoy being the centre of attention then become a ~~critic~~, as long as you make people laugh. Alternatively, you could be a producer and introduce a show just like Oprah Winfrey. If you prefer being behind the scenes, how about working as a programmer and correcting the text in books by famous novelists? If you enjoy giving your opinion, then you could be a TV presenter and review books or plays. Finally, if you're good with computer software then you could be an editor and make your own entertainment app.

1 comedian.....

2

3

4

5

5 Choose the correct options.

A: I saw Carla Michaels yesterday. She's a singer now. Apparently, she's got a song in (1) the charts / stream / classics.

B: Wow! I always thought she'd be famous but I thought she would become a (2) producer / critic / TV presenter because she liked hosting the school talent show.

A: I thought she'd be a (3) novelist / comedian / programmer because she was always telling jokes. Anyway, she's just finished her first album. The first (4) track / piece / classic is online, so we can (5) broadcast / stream / shoot it later and listen to it.

B: Good idea. Has she made a video, too?

A: Yes, she (6) cast / broadcast / shot that in New York last month! She has a friend who's a music (7) producer / editor / critic and he helped her out.

B: Good for her. She'll be making (8) bestsellers / appearances / series on TV and radio shows soon, I'm sure.